Six night package at the all-inclusive Iberostar Rose Hall Beach Resort

Stepping into the world beneath our feet has never been so enticing. We'll not be at Abandawe with its stone circle nor will we be collecting bat guano during this day's adventure. We will travel to Green Grotto Caves and explore its own underground story just beneath our feet.

Enjoy a drive through the hills and countryside of Jamaica to the small village of Nine Mile the birth place and final resting place of Bob Marley.

A piece of Scottish history reveals itself at Edinburgh Castle. Reachable by only a footpath, this castle ruin bears engravings on the inside of the castle wall. It was once home to Dr. Lewis Hutchinson who came to Jamaica from Scotland in 1760 and became Jamaica's earliest recorded serial killer. This tour takes us to the interior of the island allowing us a glimpse of how the typical Jamaican lives.*

Driving through lush sugar cane fields where maroons would have once escaped into during Jamie Fraser's time, we will visit the Appleton Rum Estate. Diana Gabaldon writes this about Appleton: "the Appleton Estate has been making rum on Jamaica since 1749, and thus would certainly have been in a position to present His Excellency (Lord John Grey) with a cask or two."

A photo stop at the tropical Culloden built by Archibald Campbell is sure to have you remembering the Outlander storyline of old Archie and his sister Margaret as well as the part he played as the Edinburgh fiend!

Travel through the woods to the cascading YS Falls. YS comes from the Scottish Gaelic "wyes" meaning "twisty or winding". After a fun filled time of frolicking in the falls, savor the local flavor of an authentic Jamaican meal.*

An evening tour through the haunted halls of the Rose Hall Great House is sure to have you thinking of Mrs. Abernathy aka Geillis Duncan. However, the house in reality was occupied by the White Witch Annie Palmer and you will learn her story of love, murder, and mystery.

Please note these excursions are not suited for the physically challenged.*

Three full free days have been built into the package to allow you plenty of time to experience other wonderful sights in Jamaica or relax in the sun with a drink in your hand!
