Lourdes

Shrine of St. John Vianney at Ars

A Vocations Pilgrimage with St. John Vianney and the Family of St. Therese

Join Father Timothy Hepner, as we re-discover the call to holiness in the priesthood, consecrated life, and family life. St. John Vianney, patron of parish priests, and the Martin family (St. Therese and her parents, Sts. Louis and Zellie) will show us the complementarity of the vocations and call us back to the heights of holiness in our own state in life. Ars, Lisieux, and Paris are among the stops on this adventure of holiness. And proceeds go to the Monsignor Carton Scholarship fund, which helps pay for the tuition, room, and board of college seminarians for the Diocese of Peoria. See you in France!

This morning we join a local guide who shows us the famous religious sites of the area as we walk the footsteps of Saint Bernadette to whom the Marian apparitions appeared in 1858. The highlights of our tour today will be the House of Bernadette, the Sanctuary of our Lady of Lourdes and the Grotte Massabielle, where Saint Bernadette had her visions. This afternoon we pay a visit to the Chateau Fort and its museum where we are not only afforded stunning views of the town and surrounding areas, but we also gain an understanding of the history of this area. Tonight, we join the Torchlight Marian Procession beginning at the Priory and ending in the square in front of the Rosary Basilica. After the procession, we have the opportunity to attend the final Mass of the evening at the grotto. B

We have a leisurely morning, some of us choosing to participate in additional Masses, and others to explore a bit of this quaint town on our own. We check out of our hotel in the late morning and we head to the Pic du Midi in the Pyrenees. We travel by roundtrip cable car to and from the summit and enjoy a bit of free time to take in the view and peruse the museum at the top. We make our way back to Toulouse this afternoon in preparation for our flight to Lyon tomorrow. Dinner is at a local restaurant this evening. B, D

Day 5: Saturday, September 25, 2022 • Lyon

The world-famous Louvre is known for its collection of classic, elegant art from around the world, including Leonardo da Vinci’s Mona Lisa and a masterpiece of Hellenistic sculpture, The Winged Victory of Samothrace. Other options are a visit to the Château de Versailles, just outside of Paris, or a stroll through Montmartre neighborhood, home of Sacre-Coeur, a Neo Romanesque church built in 1870. We meet back at our hotel this evening before transferring to a restaurant for our farewell dinner. B, D
